Guide

ANSHU GUPTA: NOT JUST A PIECE OF CLOTH

1. Do you have a piece of clothing in your closet that you haven't worn in a year? In two years? Three? Why do you think you hold on to it?
2. Anshu describes how every piece of cloth can be re-used to become a new product. How might this way of thinking, if applied in your life, affect the way you consume and discard products?
3. Do you think there is a need for an organization like Goonj in your community? Or in your country?
4. How does an organization like Goonj compare to programs that we have in the USA, such as Goodwill or recycling?
5. Can you think of creative ways to recycle things you no longer use that may serve someone else's needs?
